

Disclosure of Potential Interests - Executive Committee (2011)

Name	Personal Interests	Honoraria	Connections
Donal O'Donoghue	None	Since January 2011 I have received honoraria, grants and/or travel funding from the following companies: Gambro Roche boehringer-Ingelheim Teva UK	The Department of Renal Medicine at Salford Royal NHS Foundation Trust (Hope Hospital) and our Vascular Research Group have received funding from the following pharmaceutical companies since January 2011: Gambro Roche Boehringer-Ingelheim Teva UK
Simon Davies	None	Baxter Healthcare (Honoraria for lectures and Advisory Board) Fresenius (Honoraria for lectures) Shire Pharmaceuticals (Honoraria for lectures)	Baxter Healthcare and Fresenius (Research Support)
Sally Feather	None	None	Amgen fund anaemia clinical nurse specialist post. Roche/Covance, Amgen and Abbott are involved in studies led by pharmaceutical company in our department.
Mick Kumwenda	None	Janssen-Cilag invitation to attend ASN 2010 Accepted.	None
Mark Brady	None	Sponsored by Shire to attend ASN November 2010 in denver, covered travel, registration and accommodation.	None
Stephen Morgan	None	Sponsorship to attend EDTA in Prague 2011 by OrthoBiotech	None
Jane Macdonald	I have no personal interests in a company which may be perceived to have a conflict of interest with the Renal Association	I have not received honoraria for advisory groups which may be perceived to have a conflict of interest with the Renal Association	I have no connections personally nor in my department which may be perceived to have a conflict of interest with the Renal Association
Fiona Loud	No personal interests	Spoke on behalf of kidney patients at the invitation of baxter for World Kidney Day at Basildon unit (received travel expenses and small honorarium). Spoke on behalf of kidney patients to Amgen staff at an internal meeting (received travel expenses and small honorarium). Spoke on behalf of Kidney Alliance to the Association of Renal Industry (received travel expenses).	I am a kidney patient rather than NHS staff, working on behalf of the Kidney Alliance. The Kidney Alliance has received grants since January 2011 for its work, and for World Kidney Day, from NXStage and Baxter. We have in the past received support for the same from Vifor, Synemed, Roche, Fresenius and Shire.
Neil Turner	Nil	ANT has earned honoraria (paid to departmental research funds) in the last 5 years for advice including licensing/approval submissions for products from Vifor, Shire, Sandoz and Takeda.	ANT is local PI in two current Otsuka-sponsored studies in polycystic kidney disease, and in a further proposed observational study by the same company.
John Reynolds	None	None	None
John Williams	I have in the past held consultancy agreements with Fresenius Medical care and with Baxter healthcare. These are no longer in place.	Part travel expenses from FMC Asia-Pacific to give a lecture to Hong Kong Society of Nephrology in Jan 2011.	Grants and awards with Baxter Health care, FMC, Roche, Vefer, Shire.
William Nelson	None	None received since initial statement to Renal Association	Not personally involved as principal investigator. No current departmental management roles.
Mark MacGregor	No declaration received	No declaration received	No declaration received
Sue Carr	None	No Honoraria. Financial grants to attend academic meetings (registration, accommodation, travel): International Society of Hypertension 2008, Berlin, Boheringer Ingelheim American Society of Nephrology 2008, Philadelphia, Amgen American Society of Nephrology, 2010, Denver, OrthoBiotech	The department is involved in studies of Phosphate binders (Lanthanum Carbonate - Shire; Alpharen - ML laboratories) Department receives unrestricted educational grant support from Baxter, Fresenius and Amgen. I have a number of ongoing e-learning projects which are conducted with OCB media (CRIMP project, Virtual ward round project). Work on project Kidn-e for e-learning for Health. Recent discussion with Shire re potential Renal Association e-learning development.
Albert Ong	None	Advisory Board - Otsuka, Pfizer	Studies funded by Pfizer and Guerbet
Fiona Karet	None	Wellcome trust Programme Grant includes allowance for conference attendance (RA meeting B'ham 2011).	None

Graham Lipkin	Nil	Previously supporting for attendance at conferences, advisory boards by Amgen, Novartis, Astellas, Wyeth, Roche, Abbott.	Amgen, Novartis, Astellas, Wyeth, Roche, Abbott, Gambro have supported scientific studies, provided unrestricted educational grants to members of the department.
Andrew Lewington	None	Lectured in South Africa 12 March 2011 - Roche Sponsorship to attend World Congress of Nephrology 7-12 April 2011 - Amgen	None
Alison Brown	None	Honoraria for speaker meetings from Vifor Pharmaceuticals, Pfizer.	Department involved in studies sponsored by Amgen, Roche plus study associated with Alexion.
Mark Taylor	Advisor to Thallion plc. A pharmaceutical company in Canada. I received $2000 this year for advice regarding a monoclonal grant stx2 antibody in Phase II Trials.	As above	None
Abraham Abraham	None	None	None
Peter Choi	None known	Consulting Honoraria: Amgen, Fresenius Medical, Astellas, Astra Zeneca, Bristol Myers squibb. Meetings sponsorship: Amgen (ASN 2010 flights, accomm, registration), Roche (EDTA 2010 flights, accomm, registration).	None known
Paul Harden	No declaration received	No declaration received	No declaration received
Liz Lightstone	None	Aspreva - funding to attend RA / ASN. GSK - funding to attend ASN / support for lupus meeting run at Imperial / advisory board. Roche - funding to attend ASN / support for Immunology meeting run at Imperial / advisory board.	My colleague Dr Fred tam has funding from Baxter and Astra Zeneca - I collaborate on some aspects of his work.
Jonathan Barratt	Nil	Baxter: Member of faculty of PD Access Academy Amgen: ASN 2007	Amgen: Extend Trial
Sunil Bhandari	None	Honoraria for lectures and advisory groups and grants towards attendance of American Transplant Congress. Amgen, Pharmacosmos, Pfizer, Astellas, Novartis, Genzyme and Shire	Hull and east Yorkshire Hospitals NHS Trust, renal service has several investigator led studies funded by Amgen, Pharmacosmos, Vifor and Roche. No other associated of conflict.
Claire Sharpe	None	Janssen-Cilag sponsored my attendance at the ASN meeting in 2007, 2009 and 2010.	Some patients from our department are recruited to investigator led commercial studies, which have been vetted and approved by the local renal research governance board and R&D department. I have no personal involvement in these studies at present.
Alastair Hutchison	None	Shire Pharmaceuticals - Consultancy in past Amgen - Consultancy in past Fresenius Healthcare - Advisory Group Takeda Pharmaceuticals - Advisory Group	Shire Pharmaceuticals - studies and grants Amgen - studies and grants Baxter Healthcare - Joint proposals on home dialysis
Andrew Connor	Nothing to declare	Nothing to declare	To the best of my knowledge, the department in which I work has no such connections.